25 Tips for Better Knitting with Edie Eckman

Saturday, January 25, 2020
12:30-3:30 p.m.

Monticello Fire Station
1515 Founders Place, Charlottesville

Enjoy your knitting more and improve your finished projects! In this fun, fast-paced class Edie will show you tricks to better understand your knitting, avoid frustration, prevent mistakes, and save both time and money. Sometimes we don't know what we don't know, especially as beginning and intermediate knitters. This class features techniques to help grow your skills and provides resources for you to continue that exploration when you get home.

Homework: None

Supplies Needed: Worsted-weight yarn (CYC #4) and appropriate sized needles in case you want to knit along in this lecture-style class.

About Edie: Edie Eckman is a popular author, designer, blogger and editor. She teaches around the country and is the author of a number of best-selling books including The Crochet Answer Book, Around the Corner Crochet Borders, and Learn to Knit Socks. Her comfortable and encouraging teaching style empowers students to gain the skills they need to confidently and enthusiastically take on any knitting or crocheting challenge. She is on a mission to make pattern instructions and techniques as clear as possible to the greatest number of knitters and crocheters possible. She also serves as a Master Teacher for the Craft Yarn Council's Certified Instructors Program, helping train others to become knitting and crochet teachers. She is a lifelong learner, and considers her students the best teachers ever. Find her on Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, Ravelry, and at www.edieeckman.com.
